Ely After Control Of Board Is Charge

Indepedents Declare Slate Filed at Final Morning Board Meeting

Charges that Mayor C. R. Ely is trying to gain control of the Euclid school system by independent seeking the post of board president were made at the meeting today by Independent John A. Parker.

The charges were made when it was announced that the administration had filed a slate of candidates for the coming election to be held at the last minute.

In reply, Mr. Parker, a former chairman of the board of Euclid school district, admitted in a letter to Mr. Ely that he had taken legal action to try to force the administration to file a slate of its own candidates.

Mr. Ely, a Democrat, said in reply that he had no intention of challenging the administration in the election.

Mr. Parker also charged that Mr. Ely had tried to prevent the appointment of a superintendent of schools, whose position was still vacant.

Mr. Ely denied the charge, saying that he had no objection to the appointment of a superintendent of schools, but that he wanted to make sure that the person appointed was qualified.

He also said that he had no objection to the appointment of a superintendent of schools, but that he wanted to make sure that the person appointed was qualified.

School of Instruction to be Held Monday by P.T.C. Council

The Euclid Council of Parent-Teacher Association will conduct a school of instruction at Euclid High school Monday, May 7, for the benefit of Euclid parents.

The purpose of the school is to help parents understand the problems facing the school system and to give them an opportunity to learn more about how their children are being educated.

The school will be open to all parents of students in Euclid schools, and will include talks on a variety of topics, including curriculum, teaching methods, and student assessment.

Corps Wins Prize in Moose Parade

Participating for the first time in the annual parade of Euclid High school, the corps won first prize for their performance.

The parade was judged by a panel of judges who reviewed the performances of the various groups participating in the parade.

The corps performed their usual routine, including a number of songs and a dance routine, and were judged to be the best of the groups.

PROPOSING the air races, see how they are conducted there, let the French in with their government officials, and go next year. I am again, I am sure, for the idea, though it is not likely to succeed. A year ago the idea was out of the question, and here we are. Why, then, should not the French be successful?"...

While I was at the races, I saw a great deal of interest among the spectators, and many of them were quite excited. I was told that the French were the favorites, but that the British were also doing very well. I was surprised to hear that the French had the best chance of winning, but I was glad to hear that the British were also doing well.

Some of the folks who think they are going to a meeting are going to the races. They are going to see the spectacle, and try to get a good seat. Even if they are not going to a meeting, they may see something of interest.

Art Collection Shows Spanish War Regalia of 16th Century

BY DAISY WELLS WARNER

While the newspapers today keep us informed of the efforts of Spain's controversial foreign policy, the Cleveland Museum of Art is now showing an exhibition of Spanish War regalia of the 16th century. The exhibit, which opens today at the museum's Rotunda, is part of the Cleveland Museum's unique collection of art and artifacts from around the world. The regalia, which includes uniforms, weapons, and other items used by Spanish soldiers during wars, is displayed in a specially designed exhibit space. The exhibit is open to the public and is free to all museum visitors. For further information, please contact the Cleveland Museum of Art at 216-707-9865.

THE MORNING GLORY

By W. W. W. Woodruff

This rainbow in the sky is to me for

If I get up late, to win without witness will,

Each year my heart is the bough light

Of which in thought I am

To bring you beauty as perfect as a morning star

Then, like a fragrant flower by the wayside,

Of my heart grow, worth while?

But, oh, the snow I write:

Quietly, in your heart grow, worth while?

Some people want every- one to get along and they get along. Some people don't. And that's all right. There are plenty of other people who don't. But there are some who have a knack for getting along with everyone, and getting along with everyone and not losing their sense of humor, and not losing their sense of fun, and not losing their sense of style, and not losing their sense of self.

You Can Read Minds With Little Practice, Dr. Crider Declares

By BLAINE CRIDER, PH. D.

Assistant Professor of Psychology, Fiske College

You CAN become a mind reader if you take a little time to learn a few basic principles.

There is nothing supernatural about mind reading. It is no more mysterious than any other form of magic practiced by professional magicians. But there are many mind reading systems that will enable you to gain an understanding of the minds of others. However, a mind reader who is not a professional can be just as effective. A mind reader can be just as effective as a professional. A mind reader can be just as effective as a professional. A mind reader can be just as effective as a professional.
