K. of C. Plans One-Day Meet

By HARRY HALEY
BYLINE: The national headquarters of the Knights of Columbus in Washington, D.C., will hold a one-day meeting on August 26th. The Knights of Columbus are a Catholic fraternal organization that provides opportunities for men to improve their lives through service to their communities. Their meetings typically include social activities, fundraising, and discussions on various topics.

Tells of 500 People Who Hadn’t Heard of War or Depression

By BLAKE COOPER, P. D.

JACK MANNIS, president of the National Mental Hygiene "Union" of 500 people who are completely ignorant of the war and the depression, said: "In the United States, there are no countries where the war has reached. As a result, people in those countries are more relaxed and are better able to enjoy life." He added that these people also have a greater appreciation for the values of life and are less likely to engage in harmful behaviors.
